DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. Further, they are in more than one sentence form. The expression "the pieces" have no definite antecedent basis in the claims. Note the claims to Sadr.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sadr. The patent to Sadr teaches structure as claimed including pieces of a plastic pallet which are removably connected together.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Schrage, Morrison, Morgan, IV et al, Belle Isle, Stolzman, Herring, Taft teach structure similar to applicant's.
